

Free and friendly digital drop-in sessions

1 in 5 people in the UK don't feel confident using digital technology.

Join our free Tea & Tech drop-in sessions on the last Monday of each month, to help build your digital skills and confidence.

Drop in at Parkfield House
1.30pm to 3.30pm

31st July 2023

21st August 2023

25th September 2023

30th October 2023

27th November 2023

11th December 2023

To find out more visit: www.bjf.org email: Patsy.Corcoran@bjf.org.uk
Tel: 01782 844036 or phone Patsy 07770 016978

Tea & Tech is a partnership with North Midlands LGBT Older Peoples Group

The Beth Johnson Foundation is a national charity dedicated to making a future for all ages.

The Beth Johnson Foundation, Registered Charity No: 1122401 Company No: 6454378

“It’s reassuring to know that we can find support to learn new things.”

BJF Community Member

- Join our free and friendly digital drop-in sessions for older people, no appointment necessary.
- B.J.F. Digital Friends offer support to learn how to use your device.
- You can use B.J.F. devices (tablets and laptops) to learn and practice on.
- We offer everyone a warm welcome with free tea and coffee.
- Visit our accessible community room and make use of our library.

Parkfield House, 64 Princes Road, Hartshill, Stoke-on-Trent, ST4 7JL
Free parking available - B.J.F. carpark at the rear of Parkfield House.

